

RUSSIAN RIVER VINEYARDS

2020 Santino's Pinot Noir

Description:

Santino's Pinot Noir, hailing from the sun-kissed Russian River Valley, captivates with warm notes of vanilla and ruby red cherry. Its bright acidity, subtle spice, and a well-balanced profile, create a harmonious and delightful wine experience.

Appellation:

Russian River Valley, Eastern Hills Neighborhood

Unique Qualities of Vineyard/Location:

Following the western edge of the Mayacamas range, this northernmost neighborhood has the least fog influence. Soils may be the most diverse within the Valley and are both volcanic and sedimentary. The western facing vineyards along the hills are exposed to warm afternoon temperatures and grapes tend to ripen earlier.

Fermentation Details:

After the 5-7 days of cold soak the wine is inoculated. Then the wine goes through primary fermentation. Once the wine goes through fermentation in tank, we press it off and it gets moved to French oak barrels. Then the aging process begins.
